

1. J.E.H. MacDonald, Lawren Harris, Arthur Lismer, F.H. Varley, A.Y. Jackson, and two others were members of what group?

2. Describe the distinctive work of this group: _____

3. For a time in the 1920s I lived and travelled with the Aboriginal Peoples in the interior of British Columbia. I painted Aboriginal villages and totem poles. Who am I?

4. Who was voted Canada's best overall male athlete for the first half of the 20th century? _____

5. In what sports did he compete? _____

6. The 1928 Summer Olympic games were held in what city in what country? _____

7. Who was Canada's top female athlete at the 1928 Summer Olympics? _____

8. At the 1928 Olympics, who won gold medals in the 100 metre and 200 metre dashes? _____

9. What philosophy and what new set of rules in the 1930s limited women's sports in Canada for the next three decades? (p.83)

10. In what year did Canada's Olympic team include women for the first time? _____

11. Name four top Canadian female athletes today: _____

12. In 1929, what percentage of young women managed to attend high school in Canada? _____%

13. I wrote under the pen name of Janey Canuck, and I was the first woman magistrate in Canada and the British Empire. Who am I?

14. In 1928, the Supreme Court of Canada made what ruling on the issue of what the word "person" meant in the Canadian Constitution?

15. In 1929, the British Privy Council made what ruling on the same issue? _____

16. A woman who was a rebel in the 1920s and who lived a non-conformist life was called a : _____

17. What was the most famous new dance of the 1920s? _____

18. Identify the years in which Prohibition started and ended in Ontario: _____ and _____

19. What did Samand Harry Bronfman and their company Seagrams do in the 1920s? _____

20. What did J. Macleod, Charles Best, J. B. Collip and one other person do in 1921? _____

21. Explain what production advancement was perfected by Henry Ford: _____

22. The year of the first radio broadcast in North America: _____

23. In 1930, what percentage of what Canadians heard on the radio came from United States sources? _____%

24. What was the most popular Canadian radio program; it was first broadcast on March 22, 1923: _____

25. What 1920s Hollywood star, known as "America's Sweetheart", was born in Toronto? _____