

2. There are several things that can help us to love in a Christ-like way in different situations:

A. Scripture: the better we know and understand the _____, the easier it will be for us to analyze events in our own _____.

B. Tradition of the Church: the things that the Church has taught throughout _____. By listening to the stories of those who have led very holy lives we can _____ which is an important step in informing our conscience.

C. Magisterium of the Church: the Pope and _____ in their role as teachers _____. The magisterium helps us to interpret Scripture and Tradition for each time and culture.

D. Humility: understanding our own limitations and _____.
When we are humble, we remember that _____.
When we are humble, we admit that it is hard for us to separate what _____.
If we face decisions with humility, we will remember that the knowledge, _____.

E. Prayer: prayer makes it possible _____.
It can also help us _____.